

Geotechnical & Environmental Services Announces Valentina Matic Promoted to Clerical Supervisor

LAS VEGAS - Geotechnical & Environmental Services, Inc. (GES) president Greg DeSart announced Valentina Matic promoted to Clerical Supervisor. In her new capacity Matic will coordinate all clerical processing functions to maintain the Clerical Operational Plan and ensure report projects are completed by deadlines.

“We are excited to have Matic accept this opportunity,” said DeSart. “Her skills and enthusiasm are a great asset to our operations.”

GES is a full-service, southern Nevada engineering firm focusing on geotechnical, environmental, materials testing and construction inspections. In addition, the company offers drilling support for the design, construction and maintenance of public infrastructure and private development. GES is regularly recognized as one of the best companies to work for.
